Privacy and Confidentiality

With limited exceptions, you are entitled (at your request) to be informed about the information the St. George Children's Museum collects about you. SGCM is committed to protecting the privacy of our staff, volunteers, donors, and patrons. Personal information such as e-mail addresses, name, home or work address, or telephone number will not be made public or given to any outside party without permission from the person affected. General information may be provided such as membership statistics, online information or surveys, and other information as part of the volunteer process or staff employments. There are times such as when a person donates online or uses our online advocacy tool when we will collect specific information such as name, mailing address, zip/postal codes, and/or email address, but it will not be shared with outside interests. SGCM does not sell, rent or lease its mailing or emails lists to third parties. SGCM may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, and all such third parties are prohibited from using personal information except to provide these services, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of the information. SGCM does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without explicit consent.
